

Ike Clarifies Agreement on Presidential Disability

Says Nixon Never Took Over Duties

But Understanding Was There During His Three Illnesses

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower said today that Vice President Richard M. Nixon never was acting president during the chief executive's three major illnesses.

The President told a new conference that an occasion never arose where a purely presidential decision had to be made during his heart attack in 1955, his ileitis operation in 1956 and the mild stroke last November.

BUT HE SAID that if such a crisis had arisen, Nixon would have acted as president to make the decision.

The President made the statement in answer to a question about his "clear understanding" with Nixon on what should be done in case of presidential disability.

HE DESCRIBED his written understanding with Nixon as an agreement between men of good will who have faith and confidence in each other.

He sharply corrected a reporter who referred to the understanding as a pact.

The president also abruptly rejected a suggestion from a reporter that the agreement might set a bad precedent that could be taken advantage of in case the president and vice president were not men of good will.

FORMER PRESIDENT Truman and Speaker Sam Rayburn have questioned the legality of the agreement. They contend that a congressional act of a constitutional amendment is necessary.

But the President said that he believes the agreement is legal and constitutional. However, he supported a constitutional amendment introduced in the Senate Tuesday as a long-range solution for the problem.

HE SAID THAT he did not believe Nixon would have to take the oath of president to become acting president.

Eisenhower also did not foresee any difficulties in his resuming the office at the end of any disability that required Nixon taking over.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS of the President's news conference: He said that increased purchasing by citizens will be the most important factor in the economic upturn he expects in the next few months.

As for an expanded public works program now, he said the federal government already is spending a lot of money and he does not believe increased federal spending is entirely the answer.

THE PRESIDENT said the administration does not have a tax cut program on the shelf to bring out in case the economic situation worsens. He said the situation changes from minute to minute and the kind of a tax cut, if there is one, would depend on the economic picture at the time it was decided upon.

Indonesian Planes Renew Attacks

PADANG, Indonesia — Indonesian government warplanes renewed attacks on rebel communication routes in what a rebel spokesman said today could be the prelude to an amphibious and paratroop assault on Central Sumatra.

A ferry boat was reported damaged in a raid by two U.S.-built Mustang fighters and a B25 bomber on the village of Sungai Tuesday. No casualties were listed in the delayed rebel army report.

Van Fleet Scoffs At Withdrawal

Gen. James Van Fleet, Korean War army commander, today scoffed at reports that Red Chinese troops have pulled out of North Korea on orders of Communist Leader Mao Tse-tung.

The wartime commander of the U.S. Eighth Army viewed the withdrawal order recently announced by the Chinese Communist government as just another political maneuver, but one which might have significant strategic importance.

VAN FLEET, visiting in Palm Springs after his return last week from a tour of Korea and other areas of the Middle and Far East, said that armed Chinese troops are still very much in evidence in North Korea.

"But it would be an excellent strategic move if the Chinese withdrew their forces north of the

City Hopes County Counsel May Rule Petition Invalid

City of Palm Springs today still holds hope that the Notice of Intention which was filed by proponents for incorporation of North Palm Springs, may be declared invalid by County Counsel Ray Sullivan, before the document can reach the County Board of Supervisors.

Palm Springs Mayor Jerry Sanborn called a special session of the City Council for either Thursday or Friday, and if the notice is declared invalid, the Council will hold a meeting to act immediately on the annexation of certain sections to the north of Palm Springs.

PALM SPRINGS HAS been investigating the annexation of land to the north since the first of the year, but has not taken the final step of declaring their intention to annex.

Meanwhile, on the northern boundary to this resort city, Bobby Garcia said he "was mad" over the report that he said he would turn "Palm Springs into another Garden." He said that he had no idea of doing so, and that his only hope was the licensing of one place, The Silver Palm Social Club.

GARCIA SAID HE was "fighting mad" over the activities of Palm Springs law enforcement officials as well as those of the county

Russia Offers Summit Meet At U.S. Site

President Discloses Bid, Approves Idea For Long Conference

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower disclosed today that Russia has suggested holding an East-West summit conference in the United States.

The President said it would be a good idea, should such a meeting be called to hold it in the U. S. if it were a long one. But he said the place wouldn't make a great deal of difference in the case of a short meeting.

AT THE SAME time, the President repeated at his news conference U. S. insistence that a summit meeting be so well prepared in advance that there would be a reason to believe it would produce real progress toward easing of world tensions.

Anything less, he said, would be absolutely futile and damaging.

The President endorsed Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' remarks of Tuesday rejecting latest Soviet terms for a foreign ministers' conference to prepare for a possible summit meeting. He said he had a long conversation with Dulles before the secretary of state spoke and that Dulles reflected his views.

EISENHOWER WENT on to say he was sure Dulles did not mean to close the door on the possibility of a summit meeting.

The U. S. will never close the door, the President said, if any possible avenue — no matter how narrow — develops which will appear to ease world tension. In that event, he said, he is ready to start no matter what the difficulties are.

First Signals To Be Installed Here by April 1

A contract from the State Division of Highways was received today by City Manager Robert W. Peterson, which will be the agreement between the City of Palm Springs and the State for the installation of this city's first automatic stop signals.

The signals will be installed at the intersection of Highway 111 and Sunrise Way, and are expected to be in service by the first of April.

No word has been received as to the possibility of securing signals at the intersection of Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue.

Racquet Club Takes Action On Picketing

Restraining Order Secured; Damages Of $100,000 Asked

Charles Farrell's exclusive Racquet Club is today without union picket lines, as a result of an order issued out of Riverside County Superior Court prohibiting the Culinary and Bartenders Union from picketing for a union shop.

The restraining order was issued by Judge Bertram James of Special Sessions Superior Court in Indio yesterday.

THIS ACTION followed by a few weeks an identical action by Dave and Arthur Lyon of the Saddle and Sirolo and Lyons Prime Rib House, who petitioned for and received a restraining order.

In both cases, the restaurants and the private club have asked for $100,000 in damages from the union.

The two petitions pointed out that neither of the two businesses are acting against the wishes of their employees, who have said that they do not want to be represented by the union. Employees of all three restaurants signed sworn affidavits to this fact, which were presented to the court.

IN FARRELL'S CASE, he is a member of the Screen Actors Guild and is not opposed to unions, a Racquet Club spokesman said. "Farrell said over a year ago that if a majority of his employees wanted union representation he would negotiate, but they did not then and they do not now," it was stated.

San Bernardino Culinary and Bartenders Union, Local 535, has been waging an organizational campaign in Palm Springs for over three years.

Burglars Hit Three Business Offices Here

Burglars raided three Village offices last night and made off with a load of pennies and about $200 in currency and checks.

Police Lt. Robert White said the prowlers hit offices of the Dill Lumber Company, Challenge Dairy and Ramon Trailer Park.

The burglars took pennies from a cash drawer at the Lumber company and $50 in cash, $150 in checks, $3 worth of postage stamps and 200 pennies from Ramon Park. Nothing was reported taken from the dairy.

Miss Colbert pledged her cooperation in the March 11 porchlight campaign. All Village residents who have not contributed, or wish to make additional contributions, to United Fund are asked to turn on their porchlights between 7 and 9 p.m., on the 11th. Volunteer workers will call on all homes marked by illuminated porchlights. Mrs. Noles and Miss Colbert are shown checking the porchlight parade map. (Desert Sun Photo.)

Three Men Charged With Bootleg Alcohol Deaths of 25

NEW YORK — Three men were arrested on murder charges today in the deaths of 25 persons from poison bootleg alcohol.

The last two victims died in New York hospitals this morning after the arrests were made, police reported.

Police said one of them, Francisco Padin, 32, Hoboken, N. J., had admitted stealing 60 gallons of wood alcohol from the chemical plant where he works and a selling it, for $35 a five gallon can, to smalltime bootleggers in the Bronx and Manhattan.

MOST OF THE 25 persons who have died of the lethal alcohol in the last week were Puerto Rican residents of Manhattan's Spanish Harlem slums who purchased the cheap "King Kong" liquor from neighborhood peddlers. Two deaths were Bronx residents, and it was Bronx detectives who found and followed up the leads which led to today's arrests.

Crocker to Be Speaker at Realty Breakfast

Francis Crocker, longtime Village and area civic leader, will discuss the proposed Freeway at the monthly breakfast meeting of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board at 8 a.m., Thursday, in the Candlewood Room of Ocotillo Lodge.

President Ernie Dunlevie urged all members to attend, to hear the discussion on this "vital topic."

Put Into Orbit By Army Rocket Again

Joins Explorer I In Space Travel This Morning

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — The Army launched a Jupiter-C rocket today and it climbed toward space on legs of fire, carrying a second bullet-shaped Explorer Satellite expected to go into orbit not far behind the first.

It would be about two hours after the 10:28 a.m. p.s.t. firing before it would be announced from Washington whether an orbit had been achieved.

THE FIRST EXPLORER was fired Jan. 31 and had made 415 trips around the earth by today.

After only 27 seconds of flight the 70-foot missile carrying the new Explorer disappeared into a bank of clouds that hung some 4,000 feet over the cape and was lost to view.

But its rumble jarred beaches for fully a minute after that; then the rocket's noise faded as it soared on toward space.

EXPLORER II was described by scientists in California as a more "sophisticated" moon than the Russian Sputniks. It is designed to be lighter and more efficient than the Soviet moons, according to American estimates of its capabilities.

The "on call" feature of one transmitter, which can be turned on and off from the ground, is expected to prolong the value of instrumentation circling in space for many months.

TO OBSERVERS, the four-state Jupiter-C rose with such splendor it seemed almost certainly destined to hang America's second manmade "moon" in the heavens — this one to be called Explorer II, or, scientifically, "1958 Beta."

The Air Force announced that the Jupiter-C was launched from the Missile Test Center as part of this country's participation in the International Geophysical Year.

THE SECOND Explorer was launched about 45 minutes after Explorer I swept across the sky over Cape Canaveral. The second one was launched along the same 110-degree azimuth. But scientists were not sure it would go as high as the first.

Army scientists said the second 30-inch long satellite, which weighs 32.4 pounds, 1.6 pounds more than Explorer I, carries a tiny tape recorder to gather and send back scientific information, had "between 50 and 75 percent" probability of going into orbit.

DR. WEHRER von Braun, who helped develop the fearsome German rocketry of World War II and who now directs the scientific team developing U. S. missilery, was a witness to the firing.

Bad weather and mechanical difficulties last week delayed firing of the twice unsuccessful Navy Vanguard and, exactly as happened in January, gave the Army its chance to go first. The Vanguard could go later this week.

Labor Peace Ends in Garment Industry Today

NEW YORK — A quarter century of labor peace in the huge garment industry ends today when 65,000 workers leave their jobs in the lofts along Seventh Avenue and march to Madison Square Garden.

The first general strike in the industry since 1933 is expected to affect a total of 105,000 workers in New York City and State, New Jersey, Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island.

FEDERAL AND city mediators joined forces Tuesday in efforts to avert the strike and scheduled new meetings today in hopes they could bring the parties together for a quick end to the walkout.

The union said an additional 25,000 workers, who make belts, buttons and embroidery, will be idled as a result of the strike.

Officials of the Press Joint Board of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union took elaborate pains to insure a mass turnout for the rally, at which ILGWU President David Dubinsky and AFL-CIO President George Meany will speak.

WORKERS WERE instructed in special delivery letters to take their usual places at their machines at 9 a.m. and to walk out an hour later.

Madison Square Garden, scene of the big rally, is about a half mile from the center of the garment district. Streets were expected to be filled to brimming with marching cutters, sample makers, examiners, drapers, pressers, finishers, cleaners and operators.

SHIPPING CLERKS and sorters who have a separate contract with the five employer groups against which the strike has been called, pledged they would join the mass workout.

The billion-dollar-a-year industry has a quarter-century history of labor peace and extraordinary labor-management cooperation. But between 1909 and 1933 it was the focus of 10 strikes marked by violent and bloody battles in the garment section, which was then a true Tower of Babel, with most of its workers recent immigrants from all sections of Europe.

VAN FLEET

be unable to act for several days." Van Fleet, vacationing at the Village home of his longtime army comrade, Col. W. P. Waltz, also reported that the South Korean army is "in better shape than ever."

He regards the 22-divided South Korean force as the biggest and best little army in the world. Moral is very high, he said, and its men are ready and able to fight.

REPUBLIC OF KOREA forces have been sharply trained and well equipped ever since the cessation of hostilities five years ago. Returning to the Communists and their actions of late, Van Fleet viewed the recent "aerial kidnapping" of a South Korean airliner and its 34 occupants as another typical Red stunt.

He said that investigation by South Korean authorities revealed that seven of the plane's occupants were North Korean agents who took over the craft in flight.

COMMUNISTS HAD claimed that the plane's American civilian pilot, and an Air Force officer and two West German passengers had "defected" from the West. Van Fleet regarded these claims as "ridiculous."

Although Van Fleet has been retired for five years, he still nourishes an unflagging interest and respect for the tiny Korean Republic. His friendship with South Korean leaders has not diminished since his departure from the peninsula.

VAN FLEET IS now serving as an active executive for "at least five" major United States corporations. He and his wife maintain a home in Florida, near Palm Beach.

The general and Waltz, retired colonel living with his wife at 440 Sunset Way, have been army associates and friends for 30 years.

They are longtime hunting companions and recently returned from a successful hunting trip to Africa.

United States Government to create the gigantic war memorial intended for the Chapel Tower to be erected at the U.S. Military Cemetery at Ft. McKinley, Luzon, P. I. This memorial is in the form of a bas relief, rising 40 feet on the facade of the tower. The artist and Paradise are currently guests at Becker's Palm Springs home. (Desert Sun Photo.)

Government Keeps Out Of Controversy

ROME — The government today kept discreetly out of the controversy seething over conviction of Roman Catholic Bishop Pietro Fiondelli in a state court.

The Christian Democrat (Catholic) government, facing critical general elections, was caught in an embarrassing squeeze by the worst church-state rupture in almost 30 years.

PREMIER ADONE ZOLI's office issued a statement Monday night which pointed out the government's predicament.

"As a Catholic, Signor Zoli is certainly saddened by the bishop's conviction," a spokesman said, "but as premier he can only think that justice must follow its course."

Attorneys for Bishop Fiondelli appealed Tuesday from the Florence Magistrates Court decision which found the bishop guilty of slander. He was given a suspended fine of $64 last Saturday for publicly denouncing a Catholic-born couple as "concubines and public sinners" for being married only in a civil ceremony outside the church.

ROMAN CATHOLICS throughout the world rallied to the support of the bishop, who refused to attend the trial on grounds he was not answerable to the state but only to the Pope.

The Communists, waging an anti-church battle in preparation for the political elections, hailed the conviction as a defeat for church interference in state affairs.

Stalin Died Five Years Ago, Today Almost Forgotten Man

By WHITMAN BARROW
United Press Staff Correspondent

MOSCOW — Five years ago today Stalin died, mourned by Russian millions. Today he is practically a forgotten man.

True, he is enshrined in a red and black marble tomb in Red Square alongside Lenin, if only in recognition of his undoubted contribution to forging a powerful industrial state from a backward agricultural land.

BUT PEOPLE SEEM genuinely desirous of forgetting Stalin and what are officially described as his "excesses."

Stalin was toppled from his pedestal by Nikita Khrushchev in a historic speech to the party congress on Feb. 25, 1956. In it, he laid bare the incredible catalogue of Stalin's misdeeds.

A RUSSIAN FRIEND, who was present at a meeting at which the speech was made known, told me: "There was a minute of deathly silence while comrades stared at each other in surprise and dismay. Then there were excited

John R. Greer Services Held Here Tuesday

Funeral services for John Richard Greer, 47, were held yesterday at 2 p.m. from Wiefels and Son Mortuary with Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., pastor of the Palm Springs Community Church, officiating.

Greer, who for 20 years was a resident of Palm Springs, died last Friday in his bed at 290 Mel Avenue. The cause of death was listed by the county coroner as barbiturate poisoning — possibly accidental.

He is survived by his widow, Virginia Greer; two brothers, Edward A. Greer and James Greer of New York City, and one sister, Mrs. E. W. Holinger.

murmurs and whispers of 'I can't believe it.'

"What will we do now?" asked our Russian friend.

"All our lives we were singing songs for Stalin. Every meeting was opened with quotations from Stalin and we read history books about him from childhood.

"ALL THAT WILL have to be changed. It means that we must rewrite history books and learn new songs. There is so much work to do."

Recently I asked the same Russian how he feels about it now. He laughed and said:

"You know, it wasn't as bad as I thought it would be. After the first shock everybody accepted the new situation and, if you remember, I said then it would be a good thing and that life would be better and freer."

I asked him whether he had learned any new songs.

"YES," HE SAID. "We learned new love songs and jazz."

Other friends were asked how their lives had changed. They all agreed on the most important change: Greater freedom to think, talk and criticize.

A woman doctor said that life generally has become easier. She noted there is more to buy in stores—particularly more clothes. There are more apartments to be had, too, and most important of all, "we have fewer worries, fewer fears."

New Curfew Age Asked by C of C Directors

City Manager Robert W. Peterson read a letter to the City Council this week in which the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce asked for an increase in the age limit on curfew laws.

The present ordinance reads that all juveniles under the age of 17 must be in their homes by 10 p.m., and a new proposal by the city officers includes the 17-year-old group.

Anticipated Easter Week activity has caused the sudden alarm by local residents.

At the same time hotel owners were warned that it was against state laws to rent rooms to juveniles.

COMMUNITY FORUM SPEAKER for Sunday night is Dr. Joseph Kaplan, prominent physicist and chairman of the United States Committee for the International Geophysical Year. Dr. Kaplan will talk on "The Contribution of the Scientist in the Age of Maturity" at 8:15 p.m. in the Jewish Community Center.

Dr. Joseph Kaplan, Noted Physicist, to Be Speaker

Dr. Joseph Kaplan, eminent physicist and chairman of the United States National Committee for the International Geophysical Year, will be the speaker on the Community Forum Series at the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alhambra Road at 8:15 p.m., Sunday, March 9.

Dr. Kaplan's impressive scholarly record begins with a B.S. degree in chemistry and a Ph.D. degree in physics from Johns Hopkins University. This was followed by a year at Princeton University as National Research Fellow in physics.

DURING THIS period he worked with Dr. Karl T. Compton, and published several papers on the nature of active hydrogen and nitrogen and the excitation of the green auroral line in the laboratory. These two papers formed the foundation of much of his subsequent work on the laboratory production of upper atmospheric spectra.

Appointed assistant professor of Physics at the University of California, Los Angeles in 1928, Dr. Kaplan became associate professor in 1935 and professor in 1940. He served as chairman of the Department of Physics from 1938 to 1944 and organized a war program in meteorology in 1940, directing it until 1944.

HE ORGANIZED the Institute of Geophysics at UCLA and directed it during 1946-47. His academic activities have included the teaching of astrophysics in the Department of Astronomy in the period 1932-1943.

From 1943 to 1945, Dr. Kaplan was on leave from UCLA as Chief of Operations Analysis Section of the Second Air Force, and later of the Operations Analysis Section of the Air Weather Service. For this work he was awarded the War Department's decoration for Exceptional Civilian Service in 1947.

FOLLOWING WORLD War II, Dr. Kaplan was appointed to the Air Force Scientific Advisory Board and has been a member of this group since 1947, having served several years as chairman of the Geophysics Research Panel.

Dr. Kaplan is currently, and has been in the past, active on a number of national and international committees. Of these, the most active at present is the U. S. National Committee for the International Geophysical Year, of which he is chairman. This committee, established by the National Academy of Sciences, is responsible for the United States program of geophysical research which is now underway in cooperation with 65 other nations. In addition, he is president of the International Association of Geomagnetism and Aeronomy.

THE RECIPIENT of many distinguished service awards, he is a member of many scientific societies and institutes. He was elected to the National Academy of Sciences in 1957 and awarded the honorary Doctor of Science degrees by Carleton College and the University of Notre Dame.

HIS RESEARCH activities have been principally concerned with the spectra of diatomic molecules, and in particular with afterglows in nitrogen, oxygen, and their mixtures.

Dr. Kaplan's subject on Sunday evening will be "The Contribution of the Scientist . . . in the Age of Maturity." Tickets for the lecture are available at the Center office, FA 5-2055.

Communists Are Going on the Wagon, with Khrushchev Playing the Part of Carrie Nation; Vodka Named Enemy

By JOSEPH FLEMING
United Press Staff Correspondent
BERLIN (AP) — The Communists are going on the wagon.

With Nikita S. Khrushchev playing the part of Carrie Nation, the Soviet bloc has opened an anti-drinking drive.

Russians and other East Europeans have been ordered to sober up, with the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia only this week blasting vodka as "Russia's 'Public enemy No. 1'."

EXCESSIVE DRINKING has become a major problem under Communist rule. Drinking probably has increased in all nations since the war. But in Eastern Europe, drunkenness almost has become part of the Communist way of life.

Some think people are turning to alcohol to escape the reality of harsh economic conditions, unending propaganda and the extreme dullness of life under Communism.

THE HUNGARIAN, Polish, East German, Czech and other satellite governments all have taken measures to support a temperance movement.

But it took Khrushchev to lay down the party line on liquor. Some might cite the old saying about a reformed drunkard in relation to Khrushchev's denunciation of alcohol.

BUT WESTERN nationals who have watched Khrushchev at numerous Moscow parties say his reputation as a drinker is greatly exaggerated.

Khrushchev rarely drinks a lot, they say, and what he drinks he holds extremely well.

The Soviet Communist leader in a speech in Minsk late last month said "The time has come to crack down sharply on drunkenness and moonshiners."

He expressed the fear that drunkenness might turn into a cult.

HE DENOUNCED the glorification of drinking in films and plays. Shortly after Khrushchev spoke, the Soviets cracked down on one of their star soccer players for drinking.

Eduard Streltsov, 20-year-old center forward on the national soccer team, was left home when the team went to play in Peiping because he drank too much, the newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda reported.

In Hungary, a parliamentary commission has been established to fight drunkenness.

In Poland, the government proposes making a 15 per cent reduction in the number of liquor shops and a 20 per cent reduction in bars and cafes.

Perry Joins In Exercise

William D. Perry, hospitalman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Perry of 1205 Ramon Road, is participating in an air, sea and land exercise with the 3rd Marine Division in the Philippines, during the first week of March.

Bureau of Indian Affairs Asks Airport Land Allotment

The City of Palm Springs has been notified by the Bureau of Indian Affairs that the government agency is now asking for the allotment of lands within the area of Palm Springs municipal airport.

The city has for several months attempted to stop any such move, and has written the government asking that the entire airport be declared reserve lands under the control of the Agua Caliente Tribal Council.

With the appraisal of the airport at a figure of more than $2,000,000, the City Council sees no chance of purchasing the land or.

Some discussion has been held on the possibility of the Tribal Council handling the operation of the airport, but nothing concrete has developed out of the discussions.

If the land at the airport is divided up into allotments, it will mean that the city will have to deal with many individual Indians rather than just the Tribal Council, making the task much more involved and complicated.

Economic Meet Set for May 9

The conference is sponsored by the Boards of Supervisors and Boards of Trade of the two counties, and features discussions on the economic situation and the outlook ahead.

The word "maelstrom" came into English as the name of a celebrated whirlpool off the Norwegian coast, the National Geographic Magazine says. The vortex was once believed to suck in all ships within a wide radius.

Look at the Record, 'Peak and Valley' Boys

The "Peak and Valley" boys—otherwise known as keep-your-eyes-on-the-chart economists, should consider the following.

The purchase of a home is non-inflationary, regardless of those who claim to the contrary.

New home and other construction is now the backbone of the economy of the nation. When home building is booming—so is the economy—and vice versa.

Chief reason that the purchase of a home is non-inflationary is the total lack of overnight depreciation. Most homes are continuing to appreciate, not depreciate in value.

If more young people could but recognize the value of making a down payment on a piece of real estate instead of so much fast depreciating "wheel-goods," there would be more peaks and less valleys on the national economic chart.

Look at the record.

When it became an accepted fact that the Korean war was stalemated the economic forecasters began to squirm, and the prophets of gloom-and-doom began oiling up the old hearse once again.

Another depression could not be avoided—they said—once the nation lost its war baby industries and started gearing for only peace-time economy.

Now, take another look at the record. After the Korean Armistice, it was the home building industry—and that alone—which kept the economy from going into a complete tailspin. The young generation of G. I.'s who had wallowed in the mud of both World War II and Korea, wanted homes of their own—and wanted them NOW.

They refused to believe that the nation would go to hell economically just because it was not fighting a war, or preparing for one. And in this belief, they won again. As these young families continued to purchase their new homes and all of the things needed to live in them, as fast as they were built, other major industries took heart and all together they buried the depression mongers under an avalanche of new merchandise of all kinds.

Now, once again, the home building industry must be ready to take the lead and start building homes for the sons and daughters of those intrepid G. I.'s who made monkeys out of the calamity howlers of their day.

Looks like their children have the same job cut out for them all over again.

Too bad those in Washington can never wake up in time to see the parade passing by.

Prisoners in Politics

By HOLMES ALEXANDER

WASHINGTON, D.C. — There

are many kinds of captivity—some shameful and some sweet, some vile and some voluntary. Sometimes you can look down from the Senate press gallery and see the prison pallor on some of the Senators and hear the chains they are dragging.

Some of the chains ring with a merry note of bells. I remember that for my wedding day, H. L. Mencken wrote me a note in which he wished me a marriage as happy as his own very short one—of which, Mencken wrote, "I rattle my chains with loud hosannas." There are Senators who wear their captivity like a happy husband. For instance:

MANY SOUTHERN Senators like Democrats Byrd, Russell and Stennis are "married" to the Constitutional principle of States' Rights. They are not, you might say, "free" from this bondage and do not wish to be. When subjects concerning State-Federal jurisdiction come up in the Senate, you can pretty well tell in advance how the Southerners will vote.

There are other States' Righters like Republican Knowland, Jenner and Goldwater. Two of these three men supported last year's civil rights bill which was a GOP party measure, but one of them opposed that part of it which empowered the Federal Government to enforce the right-to-vote in a sovereign State.

WE SEE HERE a different degree of bondage that exists among Southern Senators. Yet nobody who begins with a strong attachment of States' Rights is altogether "free," any more than a faithful husband is free to pitch his affections elsewhere.

But the kind of captivity that binds a statesman to Constitutional principles is not such a bad thing. We often read or hear that certain lawmakers are the prisoners of the "selfish interests" (to use a Trumanism) or of their campaign contributors.

BUT I TAKE IT that any accuser would find it hard to call a culprit by name and to make any charges stick. The great Daniel Webster, if I understand some of his works, seemed to believe that corporate persons as well as human persons were important members of his constituency, and deserved his attention.

Few if any Congressional members today are forthright enough to admit that they "represent" industries back home, but this is not untrue. Cotton, petroleum, coal, wheat and even natural scenery for tourism get the support of many Congressmen and Senators, and these lawmakers are not altogether "free."

THE TALK ABOUT the mastery of campaign contributors over statesmen, however, is mostly imaginary. I have never known a member of Congress who could be told how to vote by a financial supporter. I have known more than one lawmaker who ignored or defied a financial angel on important votes.

But there are some Senators whose captivity is neither happy nor admirable nor mythical. I am not going to name them, because I judge that this month of March they will be answering for themselves. They are the prisoners of the only nationwide "boss" in the country. This jailer is Walter Reuther.

MR. REUTHER, president of the United Auto Workers and vice president of the United Labor movement called AFL-CIO, is in Washington for hearings before the McClellan subcommittee which succeeded last year in exposing another Labor Leader, Dave Beck, as a cheat and a crook. No such charges will be made against Reuther. Many interesting characters in history and fiction have believed that money is the shadow while power is the substance. For many years now, Mr. Reuther has been berating accumulating power over men and institutions in the United States. This red-headed, ready-witted, business-berating Labor leader is a person of parts. He is personally attractive. In private discourse he seems modest and reasonable.

BUT ANYBODY who has heard him speak in public or testify in Congressional hearings would be justified in wondering if Walter Reuther has the traits which have overthrown many existing governments and set up new systems based on personal power.

Anyhow, Walter Reuther is in town for hearings on the Kohler (Wisconsin) strike in which there was a large amount of property damage, personal injury and power play. We need not pre-judge Walter Reuther's part in all this. But it would be instructive for every American citizen to watch both Mr. Reuther and the U.S. Senators, not only those on the committee but all Senators. There is a way to tell which ones are this man's prisoners. Take notice which Senators salute and answer, "Yes, sir!" when their warden calls the roll.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: My girlfriend fixed me up with a blind date and I should have known the minute he showed up in a bow tie that he couldn't be trusted. I fell for him like a rock. He got me to love him on purpose and then lied to me and cheated on me. Everytime I go with a man who wears a bow tie, the same thing happens. I think girls should be warned about men who wear them. Thank you.

AGAINST BOW TIES

DEAR AGAINST: Don't condemn all the men who wear bow ties because of your experience. I know many a man behind a bow tie who can be trusted.

love she needs. I am afraid if I don't keep seeing her she will turn to just anybody for the love she needs and they are such good kids I hate to see their marriage break up. Please give me some advice.

WAYNE

DEAR WAYNE: This is a new kind of "charity." Tell your cousin's wife to straighten her self out and concentrate on giving her husband the "love he needs" and it will come back to her.

RATHER TAKE BALLET

your parents if you nan take ballet.

DEAR ABBY My husband is a donut dunker. I like to dunk myself, but I never do it out in public where anybody can see me. He says there is nothing the matter with dunking a donut any more and it is accepted in the best of places. Am I from the old school or is he just making it up?

NO DUNKER

DEAR NO: Any place that serves donuts sees dunkers by the dozens. That's half the fun of eating donuts. Quit fighting the battle of Dunker Hill.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MAC

MAC INTOSH: Your problem is simply a champagne appetite and a beer income. Stay out of those places or you could get "killed."

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

'Ahh—What a Comfortable Nest'

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

As sure as you're born, We'd be lost without corn.

This may seem to be an odd time of the year to discuss the topic, corn, but in looking over my little book which lists the days and weeks set aside for special observances, I found none honoring that noble product of the soil—corn.

GOT TO THINKING of what it would be like if there wasn't any corn.

In the first place, our output of breakfast cereals would be sadly depleted. We'd have to get along with bran, wheat, oats, barley and rye.

At that, I know some fellows who like rye for breakfast. However, not in flake form. With water, soda or ginger ale or maybe just as a straight hooker.

WITHOUT CORN we'd be without bourbon. But not for long. Some bright but thirsty scientist would soon develop a synthetic substitute.

Without corn the great state of Iowa would be lost for a slogan. Without corn the productive-ness of our comedians, be it stage, screen, TV or radio, would be materially curtailed.

And without corn, what would happen to the majority of our columnists?

THAT'S THE PART that concerns me.

I'd be lost in a maze of large ideas, have to rely on brilliant, constructive ideas if I couldn't be corny.

That's a paradox. Be lost in a maze if there wasn't any corn. Maze. Maize. The latter is the polite name for corn.

Get it?

See what I mean by extolling the merits of corn?

Corn is an American Way of Life.

Anyway, discussing it was as neat a way of getting down this far in today's thing as any I know of.

THIS SHOULD have been written yesterday. Tuesday, March 4 was President's Day. We used to inaugurate our presidents on March 4. We don't now but we still call it President's Day.

Somebody is always debunking things. It was on March 4, 1933, just 25 years ago yesterday, that Franklin D. Roosevelt spoke those electrifying words:

"The only thing we have to fear is fear itself."

THAT PHRASE won instant acclaim and put the nation to thinking straight again. The only reason I bring this up is that the other day I came across an article which quoted a man who, in turn, quoted a chap by name of Montaigne who said, back in 1580, some 350 years before FDR:

"The thing I most fear is fear."

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

The rains have paused briefly this day and I have been out to assess the damage. How does it happen that an oak tree can grow on a hillside for 25 years. And the minute you build a house next to it, fall in a fainting fit right on top of the roof?

FINALLY IT FALLS. Does it fall where it can be cut up into firewood? Ha! It falls where it takes two trucks and a block and tackle — to say nothing of a promissory note on the village jug — to move it.

A good deal of mud slid off the hillside along with the tree. When the mud runs off the hillside it does not continue downhill. It stops right in the yard, defying all rules of gravity.

CHILDREN and dogs love this mud. They adore it so, they bring quantities right into the house. On their shoes.

It is great weather for bankers. When it rains, my banker is all smiles. He comes down early and fishes a solid gold ring from his waistcoat and opens the bank.

Pretty soon he is lending money like mad. Nobody is solvent when a tree slides down his yard. The banker is very solemn looking. For it is a solemn moment.

"HOW MUCH do you need?" "About $200, Banker."

"You do not intend to spend this in frivolous living, do you?" said the banker sternly. "You do not intend to place this glue on the bangtails? Nor just with weigh-the-fate-the-hard-way?"

"No, Banker," I said humbly. "The ready is for the man who will haul the tree off my roof."

THE BANKER then calls for my account sheet. Why is it bankers always shake their heads when they look at an account sheet? It is nothing to shake your head about.

"Have you got bids?" said the banker. Bankers are businesslike. If you should break your glasses, they would want you to get a Seeing Eye dog while you get bids from the optometrist.

"IT WAS RAINING," I said. "Or hadn't you noticed I could hardly get the tree man to come and look at the tree. Let alone bid on it."

"He should bid on it" said the banker sullenly.

"Well, he won't," I said. The banker sighed and looked at my blueprints. He took out his solid gold watch and looked at the solid gold time he was spending on me.

"I SUPPOSE WE must let you have the 200 clams," he said. "It is an emergency and we bankers must face emergencies."

"That is the old team spirit, Banker."

"Sign here," said the banker brushing a far from his eye. "When do I get the money, Banker?"

"Why you do not get the money at all," said the banker. "You would not want to take my nice money out in the rain and get it all wet and muddy, would you?"

"NO," SAID the banker, "we will keep the money here. In our nice, dry and warm bank. When the man has removed the tree, you will give him a check. And when he brings the check in, we will give him the money."

said the banker, "or again we may not. We may persuade him to take a deposit slip instead."

"Good morning, Banker."

"Good morning to you," said the banker opening the door by the solid gold door knob.

QUOTES

LONDON—Wine cellar employee John Brockwell, winner of more than half a million dollars in British soccer pools, reacting to his 25,000,000-to-one victory:

"Whew, I can't believe it. We'll probably have a vacation first and think over the whole thing."

EARL WILSON:

New York Night Life Falls Behind

MIAMI BEACH—Us New Yorkers have got to face it — Miami Beach and Las Vegas are now the swingiest towns in America and have left our little old night life behind.

Frank Sinatra wouldn't be lured to Broadway this season—but the Fontainebleau's got him for one week starting March 11—for $35,000 and all the cereal he can eat. That's probably the record salary here. Marlene Dietrich precedes him at $17,500 a week.

Sinatra fans from Texas and Mississippi have written for reservations. But the hotel will practically handpick its customers so its regular patrons won't get shut out. Lauren Bacall maintains she won't be here with him.

"I've got to be home with my kids," she told me. The Fontainebleau's La Ronde Room loses money paying such salaries—but considers it's good promotion.

"Do you know," said one of the hotel chaps, "that people from all over want to rent our rooms just so they can get in to hear Sinatra?"

Lillian Kramer, the New York hotel owner who lost all those diamonds in a burglary a month ago, was just wearing some dirty old pearls when I saw her at the smart L'Aiglon, now managed by Gogi.

"I feel naked," she said. No trace has been found of the jewels or the burglar—who evidently was somebody who knew her habits thoroughly.

Joli Gabor wrote to Mrs. Kramer, "Darling, don't you worry about losing your diamonds. Come into my shop and I will show you a 30-karat Zircon."

Nudism is creeping into the spots. Beautiful blonde Chickie James wears positively nothing but a G-string in Lou Walters' Cafe Des Paris show.

"The first night I was terribly scared but agreed to do it for extra money," Chickie told me. "Besides, they promised me the lights would be very low. But on my very first appearance, the electrician goofed and the lights went on full blast. What a debut."

Evelyn West, the Treasure Chest Doll, and 14 other strip-teasers, keep the old grinding until 5 a.m. at the 5 O'clock Club. I took the B.W. in there and a photographer took our picture. Later he came over and whispered to me:

"Is that your wife with you?" He seemed terribly surprised when I said it was. "Dialogue overheard at the new Hotel Barcelona between Comedian Joe E. Lewis and a fan:

Fan: "Can I have your autograph, Mr. Lewis? My kid'll love it."

Joe E.: "Sure, what's his name?" Fan: "Gloria."

My B.W. has a new admirer—Walter Winchell. WW and I patched up an old feud here when I M.C'd a Police and Firemen's benefit and he was my assistant. Later he sent beautiful flowers to the B.W. who remarked, "I wish all columnists would do that."

After he mended a feud with Bennett Cerf, he became so buddy-buddy with Bennett that Mrs. Cerf said, "I think he's trying to come between us."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL... Ads for "Run Silent, Run Deep" had to be reprinted: they listed "Gable"—and his contract specifies he'll be called "Clark Gable" — Janet Gaynor and her husband are quitting their South American plantation... "Portofino" was a $230,000 flop; "Compulsion" lost 80Gs.

Loretta Young's dtr., Judy Lewis, will wed Joe Tinney; her uncle, Ricardo ("Jamaica") Montalban, will give the engagement party... The State Dept. told Venezuelan ex-dictator Perez Jimenez —due here—he can stay only a short while enroute to Spain... Victor Borge had his huge TV salary check sent to his Conn. address — Poverty Rd., Southbury

... "Li'l Abner" will have a London company... Ann Sheridan's dates are with Texas oilman G. Hubbard... Fran Warren's new album is "Hey, There, Here's Fran Warren"

B'way producers are juggling titles to get top position in the alphabetical ad listings: In the N.Y. Times "Li'l Abner" became "Abner" and went to the top, so "Time Remembered" became "Aaaaah! Time Remembered"...

Bra mir. Jay Berle bought Al Jolson's H'wood home for six figures... Carroll Baker will be Person to Person'd March 28... Joe DiMaggio's complaining he doesn't know most of the girls he's reported dating... Harry Belafonte's ex-wife, Marguerite, may enter politics... Arlie Shaw's returning from Spain to write background music for H'wood films.

EARL'S PEARLS... A loose tongue sometimes results in loose teeth.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: It's an adult western if the hero fires only ten or twelve times before he reloads his six-gun.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

'Desire' Only for Adults

Hollywood—Paramount producer Don Hartman is heading out to Chicago for some sessions with the Yindy City's police censor board. He wants the board to remove the Only-for-Adults-Over-21 tag pinned on his picture, "Desire Under the Elms," starring Sophia Loren and Tony Perkins.

I lunched with Sophia in Paramount's commissary, where Sophia kidded our next-table neighbor, Elvis Presley, about the way he shuffles his feet under the table while dining, same as while he's singing. Said Sir Swivel, "Sophia, honey, when that leg of mine quits movin' I'm outta business!"

HAL WALLIS is angling for Alberto Moravia's mother-daughter novel, "Two Women," in which he hopes to co-star Sophia with Anna Magnani... Dean Martin's opening line in his new night club act: "I've got me a new opening number—I come onstage sober for a change!"

Universal is trying to team up two of Hollywood's hottest box-office stars, Marilyn Monroe and Rock Hudson, in "Peter and Catherine"—in which Rock would play Peter the Great and Marilyn Catherine the Great... Fox is flagging country singer Ferlin Husky to do some country singin' in "Rally 'Round the Flag, Boys!"

FARMER'S MARKET Sight: Greta Garbo, shopping in the rain... Cary Grant carted a crate of oranges to orangeless Moscow, where the golden fruit is worth 20 times its weight in gold... I: Crosby careened in from Fort Ord to introduce June Blair to his ever-swingin' sire, Bing.

"VERMILLION O'TOOLE," Ann Sheridan's upcoming Broadway musical, will be produced by Ross Hunter. It's a remake of "Take Me to Town," the first movie Annie-Pie made for Universal—and also the first produced at that studio by Hunter.

Studio sound engineer, Frank Tack tape-recorded his neighbor's barking dog after two months of sleeplessness and played it right smackdab back into his neighbor's backyard. No more barking. Try THAT on your hi-fi set!

TV TOPICS—That wallin' Johnny Mathis will "Wild Is the Wind" on the Academy Awards telecast March 26... Jack Benny will turn a trick or two on the Oscarcast too... Natalie Wood and Bob Wagner will act as custodians of the Oscars, same show.

More Oscar Teledivertissements: The show will be emceed by Bob Hope, Jimmy Stewart, Jane Russell, Jack Lemmon, David Niven and Donald Duck—repeat, DONALD DUCK!

THE STAUD ACADEMY board has requested the gal stars not to wear dresses that night, for not-too-obvious reasons, and the girls have also been asked to leave their diamonds home because the gems glare too much for the telecameras.

There'll be less comedy on the show this year. Academyite Dick Breen's explanation: "The Academy thinks the show should be less of a comedian's showcase and more of a news show. Besides, the actors and actresses who lose out on the Oscars are never in a laughing mood so too much comedy, we've learned, is out of place." Aside to Bob Hope: Leave your cap-&-bells home, Buster!

NATALIE WOOD was bedded at home suffering from a blistered left heel when I phoned to congratulate her on her work in "Marjorie Morningstar"—a result of rehearsing for the Hope show she did last Sunday (March 2) with her husband, Bob Wagner... But Natalie refused to recognize it as an injury, even though laid up. Said she, "It's really a sympathy pain—because 'R. J. (she never calls him Bob) sprained his left ankle a week ago!"

Rod Sterling is signalling man-&-wife team Cornel Wilde & Jean Wallace for a man-&-wife whirl on Playhouse 90's "Bomber Moon"... Patti Page landed Liz Scott for a songsting on her April 23 show... The McGuire Sisters, who hail from Miamisburg, Ohio, lost a large lump of loot by investing in Broadway's ill-fated "Winesburg, Ohio."

FOUR STAR Theatre jotted Jane Powell and Jack Lemmon for its "Most Likely to Succeed" segment... Schlitz Playhouse will give the late Jimmy Dean's "Unlighted Road" another whirl one of these preevems.

Teleproducers keep poppin' The Big Question to Gary Cooper but Coop keeps sayin' nope, no TV for him... Rosemary Clooney and George Gobel shook hands on it. They'll trade April shots on each other's teleshows... Jim "Maverick" Garner is home again after having his tonsils trimmed at Cedars of Lebanon... Robert Q. Lewis's definition of a conceited todians of the Oscars, same show.

Spend Weekend In The Village

Visiting in the Village over the weekend were Helen Thurston of Malibu (one of Hollywood's top stunt girls), her sister Lynell Thurston (former Radio City Music Hall "Rockette" who now makes her home in Hollywood), and Lenore Lynch, of San Francisco, houseguest of Helen Thurston, on her first visit to Palm Springs which she has looked forward to for a long time. They were here to see Paul and Paulette, entertainers at the Chi Chi and close friends of Helen Thurston.

Radio Favorite Guest Artist at Ladies Luncheon

A favorite of Israel, Europe and the United States, Marty Drake of radio, movies and TV will be the guest artist at the luncheon at Howard Manor on March 12 at noon, to be sponsored by the Women's Division of the United Jewish Appeal.

The story that Marty Drake has to tell is termed both dramatic and poignant. His early training brought him high honors and he was one of 12 singers chosen throughout the world for the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York. His career was interrupted when he went to Israel and Europe to get first hand knowledge of the plight of the Jewish people. All women are invited to attend and reservations may be made by calling FA 5-2055.

Vacationers Return But Some Are New

March marks the beginning of a new month and brings many new and returning vacationers to the Village.

Relaxing at Dorothy and Walter Freund's Sandcomber apartments are Cy Pesek from St. Paul (he is vice president of Minnesota Mining Company); Mr. and Mrs. Warren Caro (she is the former Nancy Kelly and he is producer and director of the Theatre Guild in New York); Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith of Glenview, Illinois (he is vice president of Litchfield and Madison Railroad); Ann Frances of Hollywood; Ed Riffen, vice president of Bellafonte Productions; Mrs. Gladys Collins of Vancouver, B. C.; Canada; Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson of Minneapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sonderg of San Francisco.

Scully Speaks At Art Center's Sunday Tea

Desert Art Center in The Plaza was the scene of a delightful tea Sunday afternoon hosted by The Writers Guild. The occasion introduced the new show of paintings for March.

A musical interlude was presented by the program artists Edyth and Alan Kopelson as narrator and accompanist on the piano. Poems selected were from their summer concert tours on University circuits and included original verse by Edyth who is a member of the Guild. Much appreciation was expressed for the fine artistry of the performers.

Table decor in Chinese motif of black and ecru was carried out by the tea chairman Mrs. Claude L. Yerkes.

Pouring at the urns were Mrs. Al Hoover, president emeritus and organizer, Miss Joan Forvill, 1st vice president and Mrs. George N. Anderson, co-director of workshop.

Mrs. A. L. Siman was in charge of the door prize, an attractive desert scene in oils, donated by Pascal Hyde, painter listed in "Who's Who In Art" library editions. Rose Powell, Guild member, was the happy winner.

Other members of Mrs. Yerkes' committee who assisted in preparing home made confections, were Mrs. R. T. Soannagel, Winifred Cooper, Guild President, Mrs. Paul Sawtelle, Mrs. Vera Jones, Mrs. Valerie Woodworth, Mrs. Marie Ropp and Miss Elsie Baum.

There were many expressions of appreciation for the first tea and program given by The Guild, with a very large crowd attending.

Rummage Sale

Rummage sale set by Ladies Auxiliary of Frontier Post 5987 V.F.W. will be held at Neel's Nursery Building, 343 North Indian Avenue, Friday and Saturday, March 7-8.

Chairwoman Katherine Spargur, FA 4-1219 asks cooperation of members and friends. Items to be donated will be picked up with just a call to FA 4-1219.

A sharp knife is better than scissors for cutting flower stems. Scissors pinch the stems and make it harder for them to soak up water.

RECORDING STAR Jimmie Rodgers and his wife Colleen were among the weekend crowd at Ocotillo Lodge. They were here with Luigi and Mary Alice Creature (Roulette Records). Creature discovered Jimmie, who was an overnight success with his "Kisses Are Sweeter Than Wine." He will be appearing here at Chi Chi in June.

If you've ever been on the sky ride over Disneyland . . . you know the fun of crossing space like you're riding a balloon . . . and the excitement of peering down at all the fascinating things going on beneath you . . . Imagine what it would be like if you could glide the skyways above Palm Springs . . . counting swimming pools . . . identifying landmarks . . . exclaiming over the traffic jamming Palm Canyon and Indian . . . noting the clusters of cars . . . where parties are in progress . . . Could be we could get the same effect . . . rubberneck trip by air via helicopter . . . but I don't think this is going to be popular with sun bathers on sunbeds . . . on conversationalists on the terrace . . . or tired golfers dozing off in deck chairs.

Janice Chiquoine tells me that the date has been set for her wedding to Lee Doud . . . retired lumberman of Tacoma . . . The two will be married in a small informal family wedding . . . at the Palm Springs Community Church . . . at 4:30 on Sunday, March 16th . . . and the wedding dinner will be at The Colony, of course.

The Colony . . . where she has lived for so many years . . . and where she has been manager the past few years . . . will be Janice's wedding present . . . for that's another thing Janice told me yesterday . . . The Douds have bought The Colony . . . and they'll spend their summers in Tacoma and their winters here . . .

Jock Williamson has invitations out for another cocktail party . . . at his house on Mirage Rd. out beyond Thunderbird . . . This one is for tomorrow night . . . and will be a farewell for Mrs. Alvan Fuller . . . who flies back to Boston on the 13th . . . to be on time for the opera.

Rav Ryan will have Millie Considine for a special guest at tonight's Bavarian Beer Festival . . . and Millie will receive a big German beer stein for a memento . . . Millie's husband Bob Considine, the noted columnist, will be at the party, too . . . but the way the release reads . . . he may have to do his drinking from Millie's beer stein . . .

Monday night is just about the only night in the Palm Springs calendar . . . when there isn't a set invitation . . . some weekly affair just to start off with . . . and then the invitations go on from there . . . So that's the night

---Baseballers Loosening Up in Camp

23rd Annual Tourney Extended to 8 Days

Almost 350 golfers are expected to compete in the three divisions of the Palm Springs Invitational Golf tournament scheduled for March 16 through the 23rd. The entry list is growing so rapidly that an extra day has been added to the event.

Some of the top amateurs in the state and from the east will try for the prizes.

AS OF YESTERDAY, five former winners of the event had indicated they will be here to compete in the Championship Flight. They are Dr. Bud Taylor, 1936, 1952, 1955 and 1957; Harvie Ward, 1954, 1956; Johnny Dawson, 1940 and 1949; Bruce McCormick, 1938 and Charles Teel, Las Vegas, 1951. First game, a practice affair with Mary Star Catholic school, is scheduled for March 14.

The Indians finished second in the Riverside County League last year and although they have lost their star pitcher, John Andrew, from the 1957 squad, Scholl is optimistic for another good season. Al Kazmier is in charge of the Junior Varsity squad.

Today's Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY, United Press Sports Writer

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK — Mrs. Elizabeth Arden, Graham, the cosmetics lady, is all booked up in another beauty today.

This one involves her Kentucky Derby colt, Jewel's Reward, and the rival Calumet Farm's Tim Tam. The mud pack pony finished first in Saturday's Flamingo but the head victory over Tim Tam was taken away because Jewel's Reward gave the Calumet colt the shoulder in the stretch.

It has set up a feud which gives added interest to the glamorous three-year-old races ahead.

MANUEL YCAZA, the Jewel's jockey, and Willie Hartack, Tim Tam's boy, bandied words back and forth before the Flamingo which indicated that they weren't bosom buddies and would insist on elbow room. Then they made like the Hatfields and the Coys on their way to the wire to set up a script which promises more future fireworks than "The Perils of Pauline."

This, naturally, provides an added flip to the horse set's future bookend Gulfstream Park, which opens today, is hoping to present the next episode when it runs the fabulous Florida Derby on March 29. Tim Tam is a sure starter and the disappointed Mrs. Graham can make Jewel's Reward, not a nominee, eligible by payment of a supplementary fee.

BUT WHETHER they hook up in the Florida classic, or in such later events as the Triple Crown

TED WILLIAMS can well afford to smile. He was told today by doctors that the bone chip in his ankle has completely disappeared and that he will be in shape for another good season. (International)

TED WILLIAMS LEARNS HE'S COMPLETELY CURED

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Ted Williams was assured today that the only chip which may trouble him this year is the one he carries on his shoulder.

The 39-year-old Boston Red Sox slugger learned from Dr. Russell Sullivan that a bone chip in his left ankle "has completely disappeared." The orthopedic surgeon told Williams the lingering soreness in the ankle should disappear "in a matter of weeks" and that he "should be in excellent condition within three weeks."

Williams, who insists he can win a sixth American League batting title "if I get off to a good start," said he will not do any hard running for a while but will continue the heavy batting routine he had planned. Williams credited his fine conditioning program last spring for his .388 average.

The intensive X-rays were completed at Sarasota, Fla., Tuesday as rain limited the Red Sox to running and pepper practice. Williams underwent the X-rays because he injured the ankle while hunting in Canada during the winter and feared his heavy training program might aggravate the soreness.

The Pittsburgh Pirates also were encouraged when slugger Ted Kluszewski, elated at his early progress, predicted he will play in 100 games this season. Kluszewski, acquired from Cincinnati on Dec. 28, played in only 69 games last season because of a back ailment.

"Right now I feel wonderful," said the 240-pound first-baseman. "I've had a few days of real work and my back hasn't kicked up at all. I'll be disappointed if I can't play in at least 100 games."

With many teams still kept indoors or restricted to light workouts by poor weather, chief news from other camps came from the holdout front.

The world champion Milwaukee Braves announced that hard-hitting relief ace Don McMahon

Silky Sullivan Now Favorite To Win Derby

ARCADIA, — The most talked-about horse in America today is flame-colored Silky Sullivan, a colt that was hardly known last fall but now is the pre-race favorite for Saturday's $100,000 Santa Anita Derby.

Although he has won only $40,850, a price of $350,000 was put on the three-year-old and refused. And almost every track in the country has tried to entice his owners into entering him in races. Silky Sullivan's fame has been achieved by spurts of speed in the final quarter and three-eighths of races that clockers say they couldn't believe if they didn't see it on their stopwatches.

HE HAS BEEN CALLED the "heart attack" horse because one of his owners, Tom Ross, has heart trouble and is under doctor's orders not to watch Silky run for fear it may bring on a fatal attack.

Although he has won but one stake and that not a major fixture, Silky Sullivan is being compared with the great stretch-runners of racing history like Whirlaway, Needles, Ponder, Strynie and even Old Malicious.

Perhaps the greatest effort put forth by Silky Sullivan and the one which sent him skyrocketing across the turf firmament like a skyrocket was in the $50,000 Added California Breeders' Championship Stakes. In the brief space of less than a half-mile Silky Sullivan made up somewhere between 31 and 35 lengths and was only beaten by a neck by Old Pueblo.

THIS SATURDAY a special corps of clockers has been assigned to time Silky Sullivan alone. He trails so far behind that the clockers of the pace-setters do not indicate his speed even with counting the lengths he is behind. Silky Sullivan is a son of Irish-bred Sullivan who was a sprinter, and his dam, Lady 'n Silk broke down before she made an impression in racing. Ross and his partner, Phil Klipstein, bought the colt for $10,000 at the Del Mar Yearling Sales.

The Riverside County final meet will be held later.

Robinson Resumes Training Today

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. Y. — After a two-day layoff, Ray Robinson, who meets champion Carmen Basilio for the title at Chicago later this month, resumes heavy training today. Ray has been idle since Sunday when he engaged in a particularly rugged four-round sparring session.

Simmons Holds Lead In Coast Scoring

LOS ANGELES — Idaho's Gary Simmons maintained his lead in total scoring in the Pacific Coast Conference with 32.9 points and an average of 21.0 per game as basketball play neared its conclusion this weekend.

Moreno in Top Shape For Kid Bassy Bout

LOS ANGELES — Ricardo Pajarito Moreno says he's satisfied he will be in top shape to meet Hogan (Kid) Bassey April 1 in their featherweight title match.

Moore Rallies In 10th, Wins By Knockout

SAN BERNARDINO, — Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore caught up with Bert Whitehurst in the final round of their 10-round non-title bout Tuesday night and axed a knockout.

Ancient Archie dallied for nine rounds before catching Whitehurst, 194's, with a solid left and hard right. Referee Tommy Hart stopped the fight with just 18 seconds left in the 10th and awarded Moore a knockout.

Before that, however, the champion, who entered the ring wearing 196's, was ahead only slightly on points.

Going into the 10th, Judge John Thomas had Moore ahead 87-86. Hart and Judge Costello Cruz had Moore leading by only two points.

THE FIRST FIVE ROUNDS of the fight were uneventful. The crowd, largest ever to attend a fight at Swing Auditorium, 3,650 paid, booed and stamped their feet.

Whitehurst, listed as fighting out of Baltimore but who claims New York City as his home base, stayed even with the champion in the seventh, eighth and ninth round.

He fought well in the final round but suddenly found himself against the ropes, helpless after Archie's big punches.

Moore moves on to Vancouver to meet Bob Albright Monday. Then, he has three matches lined up in Europe.

Former Village Swim Teacher Taken by Death

Harold Dutch Smith, well known former local swimming instructor and a cousin of Edith Eddy Ward of Palm Desert died at the age of 49 at his La Jolla home. Cancer was the cause.

Smith was a former Olympic diving champion, winning the platform diving event in the 1932 games after placing fourth in the 1928 games at Amsterdam. In 1936 he was hired to coach the German Olympic swim team.

He spent much time in the Palm Springs area as swimming coach.

Laurie's In As City Cage Loop '58 Champions

With but two games left to play in the current City Basketball League, Laurie's Steak Ranch had a commanding lead and is just a shoo-in to repeat their championship of last year. They have lost but one game this year and that was by default.

Last night they defeated Smoke Tree Stables 48 to 35 with Don Stone and Joe Mazzola scoring 12 points each. D. D. Hines was high for Smoke Tree with 10.

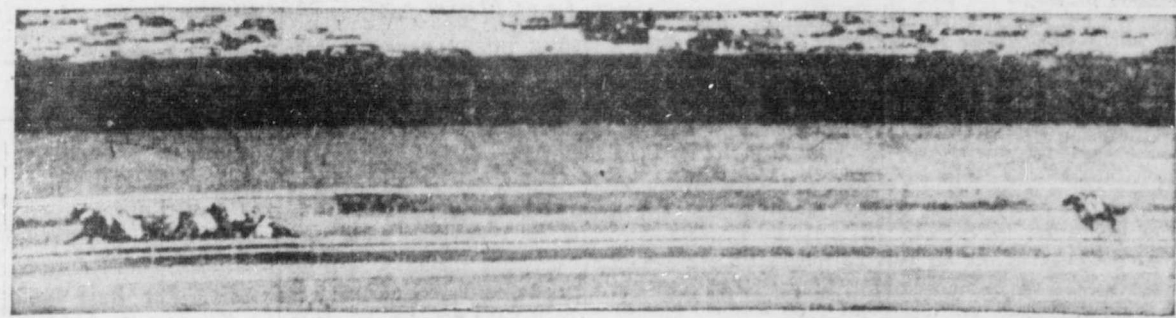

In the second game last night Reyes All Stars outscored Bonnie Electric in a hot one, 34 to 33. Bobby Clinton of the Reyes team scored 12 points, and won the game with a basket in the last five seconds. Lester Hurst was high for the losers with 10 points.

Fight Results

CHICAGO—Eddie Perkins, 146, Chicago stopped Willie Dillon, 144, Chicago 5. MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Jimmy Beecham, 157 1/2, Miami, Fla. outpointed Willie Vaughn, 160 1/2, Hollywood, Calif. 10.

THE AMAZING SILKY SULLIVAN, whose sensational stretch runs have captured the imagination of race fans everywhere, is expected to be the cause of a record crowd at next Saturday's 21st renewal of the Santa Anita Derby. He will probably go to the post as an odds-on

ROB FAULKNER

Rob Faulkner Awarded High Music Honor

Rob Faulkner, 18, Palm Springs High School senior and son of Mrs. Ruth Faulkner, 745 San Lorenzo Road, has just returned from playing with the All California High School Symphony at Santa Barbara.

The youth, who has been studying for eight years, played first trumpet. The concert was directed by Conductor Maurice Faulkner, no relation to the boy. It is the first time in local history that a boy has been given this honor.

THE YOUTH has studied music for eight years, and has studied under Gus Patzner for three years. He is a member of the Palm Springs High School band, in which he plays first trumpet and is a student conductor.

He had a chance to play for Ralph Rush, head of USC Music education, at Idyllwild, and attended the Idyllwild School of Music last year.

ONCE HERE in Palm Springs, playing with others in the line of march of a Desert Circus Parade, he was picked out by Ray Anthony to audition for him on his TV show.

He plans to attend the University of Southern California on a music scholarship. A few years ago the youth studied under Byron Jolitt, head of the brass section for the University of Denver.

The first automobile trip across the United States — San Francisco to New York — took 71 days in 1903.

Building Code Changes Asked By Inspector

New amendments to the 1958 uniform building code were proposed to the City Council at its luncheon meeting this week, by Jack Sanders, chief building inspector.

The new amendments call for an increase in building permit costs on valuations in excess of $15,000, and change only the higher valuation permits.

Certain changes were made in the sections of the code, including the deletion of various sections already covered under the Palm Springs Zoning Ordinances, or, as in one, it deletes the section which allows completions to be given to unfinished buildings.

The City Council is expected to take official action on the building code changes at its next meeting on March 12.

$1,000 Spent on Police Range Improvements

Improvements totalling $1,000 has been put into the local police pistol range.

City Manager Robert W. Peterson said this week that the money has been used to regrade the surface and to place walks around the building and up to each of the targets.

Police officers have been spending their own time in fixing up the new range and plan soon to have a complete training center in the area.
